Re: Head Womens Tennis Coach, URI

Dear URI Athletics,

Please accept this letter and resume as my formal application for the position of Head Womens' Tennis Coach position at the University of Rhode Island. Having grown up in RI I am very familiar with the university and have always strongly believed that the tennis program is a sleeping giant and could/ should contend for A10 titles every year.

I am presently the Head Mens and Womens Tennis Coach at Georgetown, a position I've held for the last 12 years. I have also had the great fortune to simultaneously serve the White House and The Obama Family as their tennis professional for the last 9 years. Although both positions have been highly rewarding, my family and I would love to be back in Rhode Island to raise our two daughters.

I am on Cape Cod for the summer and could easily come meet with you in person at your earliest convenience to discuss the position. My cell phone is [REDACTED]

Kindest Regards,

Gordie Ernst

That is correct.

Our position posted in late May 2018 and we hired in August 2018.

I was only asking for the match time, as the start time for our match was not posted online and Jordan, our Coach at the time was unable to connect with Georgetown.

Patty,

This was only about a match at not anywhere near the time we were in the search process of hiring a coach.

This was about a question regarding a match only. Please let us know if I am accurate.

As I discussed these questions with Thorr I now remember some communication I did have last spring with Georgetown. It was in regards to a time for a tennis match scheduled to take place at Georgetown. We were planning flights but couldn't do so until a match time was finalized.

Here is the email...

I apologize, I completely forgot about this communication until now.

Hi Patricia,

Apologies... Coach Ernst is currently on leave. I've forwarded your message to our Assistant Coach Courtney Dolehide who is acting in the head coach role during the interim. I do know the match will be at either 11am or 12 noon (most likely 11am).

I'm sure Coach Dolehide will be back in touch shortly.

Thank you!
